4.1.1 Authority

These regulations are adopted pursuant to R.I. Gen. Laws § 6-13.1-1 et. seq., the Deceptive Trade Practices Law, specifically R.I. Gen. Laws § 6-13.1-7(c).

4.1.2 Purpose

These regulations are for the purpose of determining, regulating and/or prohibiting certain conduct, terminology and/or representations concerning real estate time share sales and practices which are, or may, involve unfair methods of competition or unfair or deceptive acts or practices as defined in R.I. Gen. Laws § 6-13.1-1 and as prohibited by R.I. Gen. Laws § 6-13.1-2.

4.1.3 Scope

These regulations apply to all time share interests in real estate or any phase of time share interests except for any such interest governed solely by R.I. Gen. Laws § 34-38-1 et. seq., entitled "Regulation of Out of State Real Estate Sales and Dispositions." It should be noted that the Rhode Island Condominium Act also governs time share condominium units under certain conditions. These regulations are also intended to be consistent with R.I. Gen. Laws § 34-36.1-1 et. seq. entitled the "Rhode Island Condominium Act." These regulations apply only to transactions which occur after these regulations become effective.

4.2 Definitions

A. As used in these Rules and Regulations, the following words shall have the following meanings:

1. "Act" or "Practice" - an act or practice shall include any threat or attempt to perform such act or practice.

2. "Advertisement," "Advertising," or "Advertise" means a commercial message in any newspaper, magazine, leaflet, flyer, or catalog, on radio, television, public address system, or made in person, in direct mail literature or other printed material, or any point of transaction literature or price tag which is delivered or made available to a customer or prospective customer in any manner whatsoever.
3. "Affiliate of a developer" means any person who controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with a developer.
 - a. A person "controls" a developer if the person:
 - (1) is a general partner, officer, director, or employer of the developer,
 - (2) directly or indirectly or acting in concert with one or more other persons, or through one or more subsidiaries, own, controls, holds with power to vote, or holds proxies representing, more than twenty percent,
 - (3) controls in any manner the election of a majority of the directors of the developer, or
 - (4) has contributed more than twenty percent (20%) of the capital of the developer.
 - b. A person "is controlled by" a developer if the developer:
 - (1) is a general partner, officer, director, or employer of the person,
 - (2) directly or indirectly or acting in concert with one or more other persons, or through one or more subsidiaries, owns, controls, holds with power to vote, or hold proxies representing, more than twenty percent (20%) of the voting interest in the person,
 - (3) controls in any manner the election of a majority of the directors of the person, or
 - (4) has contributed more than twenty percent (20%) of the capital of the person. Control does not exist if the powers described in this paragraph are held solely as security for an obligation and are not exercised.

4. "Conspicuous" - A term is conspicuous when it is so written that person against whom it is to operate ought to have noticed it. Language in the body of a form is "conspicuous" if it is in larger or contrasting type or color.
5. "Conversion building" means a building that at any time before the disposition of any time share was occupied wholly or partially by persons other than purchasers and person who occupied with the consent of purchasers.
6. "Deceptive warranty" - For the purposes of this chapter a "deceptive warranty" is:
 - a. A guarantee or warranty that contains an affirmation, promise, description, or representation that is either false, fraudulent, or that, in the light of all the circumstances, would mislead the consuming public; or fails to contain the necessary information to avoid misleading the consuming public; or,
 - b. A guarantee or warranty created by the use of such terms as "guarantee" or "warranty" if the terms and conditions of such guarantee or warranty so limit its scope and application as to render the representation illusory, as where any costs or charges to the consumer attendant upon such work are prohibitive or approach the costs for the repairs absent any warranty or guarantee.
7. "Developer" means any person who
 - a. offers to dispose of or disposes of his interest in a time share not previously disposed of, or succeeds to any special developer right, or
 - b. applies for registration of the time share under these regulations.
8. "Dispose" or "Disposition" means a voluntary transfer of any legal or equitable interest in a time share, but does not include the transfer or release of a security interest.
9. "Dwelling unit" means any building or structure, or any unit therein or part thereof, and all the common areas inside and outside such building or structure, occupied or intended for occupancy as a residence by one or more individuals; including a mobile home or a lot therefor.
10. "Managing entity" means the manager or, if there is no manager, the association.

11. "Offering" means any advertisement, inducement, solicitation, or attempt to encourage any person to acquire a time share, other than as security for an obligation. An advertisement in a newspaper or other periodical of general circulation, or in any broadcast medium to the general public, of a time share in a unit not located in this State, is not an offering if the advertisement states that an offering may be made only in compliance with the law of the jurisdiction in which the unit or units are located; such offering shall contain the following language in bold-faced print "THIS IS NOT AN OFFERING PROTECTED BY THE RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR REAL ESTATE TIME SHARE SALES AND PRACTICES;" provided, however, if the subject time-share property is registered pursuant to § 4.3 of this Part, such language need not be printed on the offering.
12. "Owner" means any person who holds title to one or more dwelling units in any manner including but not limited to a partnership, corporation or trust. For purposes of these regulations the term "owner" shall include one who manages, controls, and/or customarily accepts rent on behalf of the owner.
13. "Person" means a natural person, corporation, government, governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, association, joint venture, or other legal or commercial entity. (In the case of a land trust, however, "person" means the beneficiary of the trust rather than the trust or the trustee.)
14. "Place of business" means the main or permanent branch office or fixed location for doing business of a seller. A booth at a fair or other temporary, stationary or mobile selling point does not constitute a place of business for the purpose of these regulations.
15. "Purchaser" means any person, other than a developer, who by means of a voluntary transfer acquires a legal or equitable interest in a time share other than as security for an obligation.
16. "Time share" means, whenever referred to herein, a time share estate or a time share license or any form of interval ownership in real estate.
17. "Time share estate/interval ownership" means a right to occupy a unit or any of several units during five (5) or more separated time periods over a period of at least five (5) years, including renewal options, coupled with a freehold estate or an estate for years in a time share property or a specified portion thereof.

18. "Time share expenses" means expenditures, fees, charges, or liabilities:
 - a. incurred with respect to the time shares by or on behalf of all time share owners in one time share property, and
 - b. imposed on the time share units by the entity governing a project of which the time share property is a part, together with any allocations to reserves, but excluding purchase money payable for time shares.
19. "Time share instrument" means one or more documents, by whatever name denominated, creating or regulating time shares.
20. "Time share license" means a right to occupy a unit or any of several units during five (5) or more separated time periods over a period of at least five (5) years, including renewal options, not coupled with a freehold estate or an estate for years.

23. "Time share unit" means a unit in which time shares exist.
24. "Unfair methods of competition and unfair or deceptive acts or practices" means any activity as defined in R.I. Gen. Laws § 6-13.1-1(6)(i)-(xx) and amendments thereto.
25. "Unit" means real property, or a portion thereof, designated for separate use.
26. "Warranty" or "guarantee" - The terms "warranty" or "guarantee" or any term connoting a warranty or guarantee as used in these regulations are synonymous. The terms apply also to purported warranties and guarantees and to any promise or representation in the nature of a warranty or guarantee. A warranty that the goods shall be merchantable is implied in a contract for their sale if the seller is a merchant with respect to goods of that kind.

Gen. Laws § 34-36.1-1 et. seq. or its successor, the language of R.I. Gen. Laws § 34-36.1-1 et. seq. or its successor shall be exclusive.
- B. It shall be an unfair or deceptive act or practice for any seller of vacation time sharing plans to fail to fully and conspicuously disclose in the contract:
1. The total financial obligation of the purchaser, which shall include the initial purchase price and any additional charges to which the purchaser may be subject, including but not limited to per diem, season, reservation, maintenance, management, recreation or utility charges;
 2. Any individual or business entity which has or may have the right to alter, amend or add to charges which the purchaser may be subject, and the terms and conditions under which such charges may be imposed;

However, inclusion of this statement shall not impair the buyer's right to bring any legal action based upon any cause of action arising from verbal statements;

5. The date of availability of each amenity of the offered accommodations and facilities when same are not completed at the time of sale of such plan.
6. The specific number of years that constitutes the term of the contract.

4.3.8 Purchaser's Right to Cancel

- A. A person required to deliver a public offering statement pursuant to § 4.3.2 of this Part shall, before transfer of a time share and no later than the date of any contract of sale, provide a prospective purchaser with:
 1. a copy of the public offering statement and all amendments and supplements thereto, and
 2. the disclosure required in the case of resale by § 4.3.9 of this Part. Unless the purchaser has received those materials more than three (3) days (excluding Sundays and Holidays) before execution of any contract of sale, the contract is violable by him until he has received those materials and for three (3) days (excluding Sundays and Holidays) thereafter or until transfer, whichever first occurs.
- B. If a purchaser elects to cancel a contract pursuant to § 4.3.8(A) of this Part, he may do so by hand-delivering notice thereof to the seller or by mailing notice thereof to the developer or to his agent for service of process. Cancellation is without penalty, and all payments made by the purchaser before cancellation must be refunded within fifteen (15) days after receipt of the notice of cancellation.
- C. If a person required to deliver a public offering statement pursuant to these rules fails to provide a purchaser to whom a time share is transferred with the materials as required by § 4.3.8(A) of this Part, the purchaser, in addition to any rights to damages or other relief, is entitled to receive from the seller an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the sales price of the time share.

4.3.9 Resale of Time Shares

- A. Except in the case of a sale where delivery of a public offering statement is required, or unless exempt under § 4.3.1(A)(2) of this Part, a seller of a time share shall furnish to the purchaser before execution of any contract for the sale, or otherwise before the transfer of title, a copy of the time share instrument (other than any plans or plans) and a certificate containing:

1. a statement disclosing the effect on the proposed transfer of any right of first refusal or other restraint on transfer of the time share or any portion thereof;
 2. a statement setting forth the amount of the periodic time share expense liability and any unpaid time share expense of special assessment of other sums currently due and payable from the seller;
 3. a statement of any other fees payable by time share owners; and

- B. A managing entity, within three (3) days (excluding Sundays and Holidays) after a request by a time share owner, shall furnish a certificate containing the information necessary to enable the time share owner to comply with this section. A time share owner providing a certificate pursuant to § 4.3.9(A) of this Part is not liable to the purchaser for any erroneous information provided by the managing entity and included in the certificate, other than for judgment liens against the time share or the time share unit.
- C. A purchaser is not liable for any unpaid time share expense liability or fee greater than the amount set forth in a certificate prepared by a managing entity. A time share owner is not liable to a purchaser for the failure or a delay of managing entity to provide the certificate in a timely manner, but the purchase contract is voidable by the purchaser until the certificate has been provided and for three (3) days (excluding Sundays and Holidays) thereafter or until transfer, whichever first occurs.

4.3.10 Escrow Deposits

- A. Any deposit made in connection with the purchase or reservation in this State of a time share from a person required to deliver a public offering statement pursuant to § 4.3.2(C) of this Part must be placed in escrow, either in this State or in the state where the time share project is located, in an Account designated solely for that purpose, by a licensed title insurance company, an attorney, a licensed real estate broker, an independent bonded escrow company, or any institution whose accounts are insured until:
1. delivered to the developer at the time of any final transfer or conveyance of a time share interest,
 2. delivered to the developer because of the purchaser's default under a contract to purchase the time share,

3. refunded to the purchaser, or
4. until delivered to the developer in accordance with § 4.4.2(C)(6) of this Part.

4.3.11 Liens

- A. In the case of a sale of a time share where deliver of a public offering statement is required pursuant to § 4.3.2(C) of this Part, a seller shall, before transferring a time share, record of furnish to the purchaser releases of all liens affecting that time share which the purchaser does not expressly agree to subject to or assume, or shall provide a surety bond or substitute collateral for or insurance against the lien as provided for liens on real estate in R.I. Gen. Laws Title 34.
- B. If a lien other than a deed of trust or mortgage becomes effective against more than one time share estate, any time share owner is entitled to a release of his time share estate from the lien upon payment of his proportionate liability for the lien in accordance with time share expense liability unless he or his predecessor in interests agreed otherwise with the lienor. After payment, the managing entity may not assess or have a lien against that time share estate for any portion of the time share expenses incurred in connection with that lien.
- C. If a lien to be foreclosed or enforced against all time shares in a time share property, service of notice pursuant to these regulations upon the managing entity, if any, constitutes service thereof upon all the time share owners for the purposes of foreclosure or enforcement. The lienholder shall also forward promptly, by certified or registered mail, a copy thereof to each time share owner at his last known address. Such notice does not suffice for the entry of a deficiency or other personal judgment against any time share owner.

4.3.12 Conversion Building

- A. A developer of a time share property which includes all or any part of a conversion building, and any person in the business of selling real estate for his own account who intends to offer time shares in such a property, shall give each of the residential tenants and any residential subtenant to possession of the proposed time share units notice of the conversion no later than one hundred twenty (120) days before the developer will require the tenants and any subtenant in possession to vacate. Rents shall not be increased during said notice period. The notice must set forth generally the rights of tenants and subtenants under this section and be hand-delivered to the unit or mailed to the tenant and subtenant at the address of the unit or any other mailing address provided by a tenant. No tenant or subtenant may be required by the developer to vacate upon less than one hundred twenty (12) days' notice, except by reason of non-payment of rent, waste, or conduct that disturbs other tenants' peaceful enjoyment of the premises, and the terms of the tenancy may not be altered during that period. Failure to give notice as required by this section is a defense to an action for possession.

- B. For sixty (60) days after delivery or mailing of the notice described in § 4.3.12(A) of this Part, the person required to give the notice shall offer to convey each time share unit or time share proposed unit occupied for residential use to the tenant who leases that unit. Tenants shall have the right to cancel their lease and receive no penalties for said cancellation as long as all obligations of the lease have been met. If a tenant fails to purchase the unit during the sixty (60) day period, the offeror may not offer to dispose of an interest in that unit during the following one hundred eighty (180) days at a price or on terms more favorable to the offeree than the price or terms offered to the tenant. This subsection does not apply to any unit in a conversion building if that unit will be restricted exclusively to non-residential use or the boundaries of the converted unit do not substantially conform to the dimensions of the residential unit for conversion.
- C. If a seller, in violation of § 4.3.12(B) of this Part, conveys a time share unit to a purchaser for value who has no knowledge of the violation, recordation of the deed conveying the unit extinguishes any right a tenant may have under § 4.3.12(B) of this Part to purchase that unit if the deed states that the seller has complied with § 4.3.12(B) of this Part, but does not affect the right of a tenant to recover damages from the seller for a violation of § 4.3.12(B) of this Part.
- D. If a notice of conversion specifies a date by which a unit must be vacated and otherwise complies with the provisions of R.I. Gen. Laws § 34-18-1 et. seq., the notice also constitutes a notice to vacate specified by that statute.
- E. Notwithstanding the notice provisions of subsection (A) herein any tenant who has continuously resided in the unit for then (10) years or more or any tenant who has attained the age of sixty-two (62) shall be given one (1) year notice. Rents shall not be increased during said notice period. A tenant as described in this subsection shall have one hundred eighty (180) days within which to purchase the unit as provided for in § 4.3.12(B) of this Part and the remaining provisions of that subsection shall apply. The owner or developer shall pay reasonable moving expenses and costs, to any tenant who has attained the age of sixty-two (62), within a fifty (50) mile radius.
- F. Nothing in this section permits termination of a lease by a developer in violation of its terms.

- A. A developer and any person in the business of selling real estate for his own account, to prevent unfair practices or deception, warrants that a time share unit will be in at least as good condition at the earlier of the time of the transfer or of the delivery of possession as it was at the time of contracting, reasonable wear and tear excepted.

 1. May be excluded or modified by agreement of the parties; and
 2. Are excluded by expression of disclaimer, such as "as is," "with all faults," or other language that in common understanding calls the purchaser's attention to the exclusion of warranties.
- B. With respect to a purchaser of a time share in a time share unit that may be used as a dwelling or for recreational purposes, no general disclaimer of implied warranties of quality is effective, but a developer may disclaim liability in an instrument signed by the purchaser for a specified defect or specified failure to comply with applicable law if the existence of the defect or failure entered into and became a part of the basis of the bargain.

Registration of the following information is required under these regulations. - B. The public offering statement may not be used for any promotional purpose before registration and afterwards only if it is used in its entirety. No person may advertise or represent that the agency has approved or recommended the time shares, the disclosure statement, or any of the documents contained in the application for registration.
- C. In the case of any time share property situated wholly outside of this State, no application for registration or proposed public offering statement filed with the agency which has been approved by an agency of the state in which the time share property is located and substantially complies with the requirements of this act may be rejected by the agency on the grounds of noncompliance with any different or additional requirements imposed by this Act or by the agency.
