Section 1 Authority

This regulation is promulgated by the Director of the Department of Business Regulation of this state pursuant to Rhode Island General Law §§ 3-5-20, 3-2-2, 42-35-1 et seq. All statutory reference herein shall be Rhode Island General Laws.

Section 2 Purpose

The purpose of this regulation is to clarify and set forth practices and procedures consistent with Title 3 of the Rhode Island General Law for the reasonable control of traffic in alcoholic beverages.

Section 3 Severability Provisions

If any provision of this regulation or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid or unconstitutional, the invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect other provisions or applications of this regulation which can be given effect without the invalid or unconstitutional provision or application, and to this end the provision of this regulation are severable.

Section 4 Regulatory Provisions

RULE 1 CLASS A (PACKAGE STORE) LICENSE – RETAIL

- (a) Each holder of a retailer's Class A alcoholic beverage license shall post on the shelf, or at the place where the beverage is offered for sale, the current effective price of each such beverage.

- (b) A Retailer's Class A license (towns/cities of 10,000 or more population, except Newport pursuant to the provisions of § 3-7-3) is authorized to keep for sale and sell at the place therein described alcoholic beverages provided that the licensee shall not, on the licensed premises, engage in any business, keep for sale or sell any goods, wares, merchandise or any other article or thing except the alcoholic beverages authorized under this license and non-alcoholic beverages; provided, however that this provision shall not apply to the sale or selling of items listed in § 3-7-3, and/or the following:
 - (1) Tobacco and tobacco related accessories.
 - (2) Lottery products sold in accordance with all applicable Rhode Island statutes, rules and regulations, and any conditions of the Department of Revenue, Division of Lotteries.
- (c) A non-alcoholic beverage is hereby defined as soda; juices; iced tea; bottled water; and beer, wine or sprits which contains less than five-tenths of one percent (.5%) of alcohol by weight.
- (d) Goods, wares, merchandise and articles of like nature to those items specifically delineated in § 3-7-3 may be offered for sale with alcoholic beverages as part of a gift set or gift package provided the retail value of such items offered does not exceed twice the value of the alcoholic beverage associated with the item. This rule shall not apply to promotions involving free good, giveaways and/or sweepstakes, which shall be governed by Rule 13 and/or Rule 29.

RULE 5 CLASS B (VICTUALER, TAVERN) LICENSE – RETAIL

- (a) TAVERN - In the granting of alcoholic beverage tavern licenses (also referred to as a Class B-T), the licensing authority must ascertain that the taverns are, in fact, operating or about to be operated with reasonable sleeping accommodations as well as kitchens properly equipped and in use, or ready to be put in use.
- (b) VICTUALER - An applicant for a Class B alcoholic beverage license (also referred to as a Class B-V) may be granted a license subject to, but not limited to, the following terms and conditions:
 - (1) Demonstration to the satisfaction of the licensing board that a kitchen is established on the proposed premises as evidenced by a certificate of occupancy from the local building official and inspection and approval by the Department of Health.
 - (2) Furnishing to the licensing authority a copy of the proposed menu and food services to be provided.
- (c) Pursuant to R.I.G.L. § 3-1-1, a Class B Licensee is defined as “Any shop or place where a substantial part of the business is the furnishing of food for consumption at the place where it is furnished.” In order to comply with the foregoing provision, the licensee must offer to the public, in conjunction with the sale of alcoholic beverages, the opportunity to purchase and consume food to be served on the premises in the same area designated for the sale and consumption of alcoholic beverages. These foods must be offered for sale during all times that alcoholic beverages are sold and consumed on the licensed premises.
- (d) All Class B licensees shall:
 - (1) Publish and conspicuously post a menu from which all patrons of the licensed establishment can see and order food.
 - (2) Ensure that food offered on the menu is prepared and stored on the licensed premises.
- (e) Licensees shall be presumed to meet the requirements of this provision by offering food at a sandwich level, as opposed to offering solely snack foods including but not limited to potato chips, pretzels, pickled eggs, pizza strips, stuffies and crackers and cheese.

- (a) Applicants for brewpub manufacturer's licenses shall be issued only to citizens who are residents of this State who are of good character and qualified, capable and willing to uphold the laws and regulations governing the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages.
- (b) The holder of a brewpub manufacturer's license shall conform to the same laws and regulations pertaining to a Class BV alcoholic beverage license, including but not limited to, the following:
 - (1) The license shall not be issued to any premise within two hundred feet (200') of any public, private, or parochial school or a place of public worship or where the owners of the greater part of the land within two hundred feet (200') of said premise file with the city or town or the Department their objection to the granting of such license.
 - (2) The holder of a brewpub manufacturer's license may not import alcoholic beverages into this state.
 - (3) The holder of a brewpub manufacturer's license shall sell alcoholic beverages only at the premise or through a licensed wholesaler.
 - (4) The holder of a brewpub manufacturer's licensed premise shall conform to all local ordinances and state laws and regulations such as fire, police, zoning and health.
 - (5) The holder of a brewpub manufacturer's license shall conform to all brewery manufacturing laws in this state.
 - (6) All malt beverages sold by a brewpub manufacturer's license holder shall be sold and delivered in such manner and under such conditions and with such labels and other marks as to identify the producer as the Department may prescribe.
 - (7) Every brewpub manufacturer's license holder shall keep such records as the Department and/or the Division of Taxation shall prescribe.
 - (8) The Department may grant, but shall not issue, a brewpub manufacturer's license until the applicant has been granted a retail manufacturer's brewpub license.

(c) Procedure for issuance

- (1) The Department shall conduct a public hearing for each completed application. The applicant shall provide a stenographer and shall bear the cost to have a transcript made of the proceedings. A free copy of the transcript shall be provided to the Department.
- (2) The Department shall give notice of public hearing by advertisement published once a week for at least two (2) weeks in a newspaper having general circulation in the city or town in which the license is located. Said advertisement shall be paid for by the applicant. The applicant shall also bear costs associated with giving proper notice to all parties of interest.
- (3) Every applicant for a brewpub manufacturer's license or for a transfer of such license shall, within fourteen (14) days after filing an application with the Department, send written notice of the application by certified mail, return receipt requested, to owners of the land within two hundred feet (200') of the proposed licensed premise. Such notice form shall be available at the Department.
- (4) Every applicant shall, at the time of application, submit a floor plan and menu of the proposed business.

RULE 46 BREW ON PREMISES

(a) Brew on Premises (“BOP”) Licenses issued pursuant to R.I. Gen. Laws § 3-7-7.4 shall be issued under the following conditions and/or limitations:

- (1) A BOP license shall authorize only the production of malt beverages on the licensed premises.
- (2) A BOP license shall be issued only to applicants who are Rhode Island residents.
- (3) A BOP license shall not be transferable.
- (4) A BOP license shall not be issued to any applicant who retains any other direct or indirect interest in the business of brewing malt beverages or manufactures alcoholic beverages.
- (5) A BOP licensee, or any producer of alcoholic beverage on the premises, shall not keep for sale, nor sell, alcoholic beverages on or off the premises. Beverages produced are for private consumption only. A BOP licensee shall clearly post the prohibition against the use of the beverage for anything other than personal use in a manner sufficient to give the public reasonable notice.
- (6) A BOP licensee shall abide by all relevant alcoholic beverage manufacturing laws as set forth in Title 3 of the Rhode Island General Laws as well as any and all other applicable federal, state and local laws, rules and regulations.
- (7) There shall be no consumption of alcoholic beverages on the premises.
- (8) The brewing, bottling, transporting, and all other production processes necessary in the brewing processes must be done by the same individual.

- (9) A BOP license only authorizes the licensee to provide the equipment and maintenance to the facility used by the public to manufacture alcoholic beverages on the premises. The BOP facility shall not provide physical assistance to, or on behalf of, customers in the production of bottling of beer, but may provide advice.
- (10) A BOP licensee shall conform to all local ordinances and state laws, including but not limited to fire, police, zoning, and all relevant Rhode Island Department of Health and Environmental Management statutes, rules and regulations.
- (11) No individual under the age of twenty-one (21) shall be allowed to brew alcoholic beverages on the premises; excepting students at the premises of an institution of higher learning where the institution uses its BOP license as part of the institution's curriculum and the students do so as part of their education in the presence and under the tutelage of a member of the institutions faculty who shall be over the age of twenty-one (21) years. In this instance, the alcoholic beverages brewed shall at all times be maintained within a secure facility that shall be locked at all times with the exception of scheduled classes and guided tours and demonstrations. Access to the facility shall be limited to facility management, who shall in turn provide access to the facility to instructors for classes. Alcoholic beverages brewed shall be disposed of by faculty and staff of the institution who shall be over the age of twenty-one (21) years.
- (12) The BOP licensee shall keep accurate and current records of the individual(s) brewing on the premises including but not limited to the individual(s) name and home address and the amount brewed by each individual and in total for the licensed premises. These records shall be produced upon request by the Department.

(b) Application Process

- (1) There shall be seven (7) BOP licenses.
- (2) Upon the receipt of completed applications for an available BOP license, the Department shall hold a public hearing for each completed application.
- (3) Notice of the hearing shall comply with R.I. Gen. Laws § 3-5-17.
- (4) Criteria for issuance of a license shall include but not be limited to financial stability, good character, consideration of the proposed location of the business and prior brewing experience. Concerning the experience requirement, the application shall demonstrate that he/she, or the manager of the premises to be employed by the applicant, possesses a fundamental understanding of the operation and maintenance of the equipment to be used to brew at the BOP premises. The applicant shall also offer proof that he/she, or the manager of the premises to be employed by the applicant, has attended or will attend an educational course/program regarding malt beverage brewing. The Department may issue a license upon the condition that said course be taken and passed within a certain reasonable time period, however, the Department may order the applicant/licensee to cease and desist said operation if said course is not completed within said time period;

- (5) A BOP applicant shall, at the time of the application, submit a floor plan to the Department. Said floor plan may be amended from time to time, with the approval of the Department.

(c) Enforcement

The enforcement provisions of R.I. Gen. Laws § 3-5-21 and § 3-5-23 apply.
