Section 1 Authority

This regulation is promulgated by the Director of the Department of Business Regulation of this state pursuant to Rhode Island General Law §§ 3-5-20, 3-2-2, 42-35-1 et seq. All statutory reference herein shall be Rhode Island General Laws.

Section 2 Purpose

The purpose of this regulation is to clarify and set forth practices and procedures consistent with Title 3 of the Rhode Island General Law for the reasonable control of traffic in alcoholic beverages.

Section 3 Severability Provisions

If any provision of this regulation or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid or unconstitutional, the invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect other provisions or applications of this regulation which can be given effect without the invalid or unconstitutional provision or application, and to this end the provision of this regulation are severable.

Section 4 Regulatory Provisions

RULE 1 CLASS A (PACKAGE STORE) LICENSE – RETAIL

- (a) Each holder of a retailer's Class A alcoholic beverage license shall post on the shelf, or at the place where the beverage is offered for sale, the current effective price of each such beverage.
- (b) A Retailer's Class A license (towns/cities of 10,000 or more population, except Newport pursuant to the provisions of §3-7-3) is authorized to keep for sale and sell at the place therein described alcoholic beverages provided that the licensee shall not, on the licensed premises engage in any business, keep for sale or sell any goods, wares, merchandise or any other article or thing except the beverages authorized under this license and non-alcoholic beverages; provided, however that this provision shall not apply to the sale or selling of items listed in 3-7-3, and/or the following:
 - (1) Tobacco and tobacco related accessories.
 - ~~(2) Pre-packaged candy, peanuts, pretzels, popcorn, potato chips or nachos or similar items. [This section (Rule 1 (b) (2)) is repealed effective July 1, 2002 pursuant to an amendment to the Rule adopted pursuant to the Administrative Procedures Act and filed with the Rhode Island Secretary of State on June 14, 2001.]~~
 - ~~(3) (2) Any "games of chance" or "lotteries" sanctioned by the Rhode Island State Lottery Commission. [Effective July 1, 2002 this section (Rule 1 (b) (3)) shall be renumbered to Rule 1 (b) (2) pursuant to an amendment to the Rule adopted pursuant to the Administrative Procedures Act and filed with the Rhode Island Secretary of State on June 14, 2001.]~~
- (c) A non-alcoholic beverage is hereby defined as soda; juices; iced tea; bottled water; and beer, wine or sprits which contains less than five-tenths of one percent (.5%) of alcohol by weight.
- (d) Goods, wares, merchandise and articles of like nature to those items specifically delineated in §3-7-3 offered for sale with alcoholic beverages as part of a gift set or gift package provided the retail value of such items offered does not exceed twice the value of the alcoholic beverage associated with the item. This rule shall not apply to promotions involving free good, giveaways and/or sweepstakes, which shall be governed by Rule 13 and/or Rule 29.

RULE 5 CLASS B (VICTUALER, TAVERN) LICENSE – RETAIL

- (a) TAVERN - In the granting of alcoholic beverage tavern licenses (also referred to as a Class B-T), the licensing authority must ascertain that the taverns are, in fact, operating or about to be operated with reasonable sleeping accommodations as well as kitchens properly equipped and in use, or ready to be put in use.
- (b) VICTUALER - An applicant for a Class B alcoholic beverage license (also referred to as a Class B-V) may be granted a license subject to, but not limited to, the following terms and conditions:
 - (1) Demonstration to the satisfaction of the licensing board that a kitchen is established on the proposed premises as evidenced by a certificate of occupancy from the local building official and inspection and approval by the Department of Health.
 - (2) Furnishing to the licensing authority a copy of the proposed menu and food services to be provided.
- (c) Pursuant to R.I.G.L. §3-1-1, a Class B Licensee is defined as "Any shop or place where a substantial part of the business is the furnishing of food for consumption at the place where it is furnished."

In order to comply with the foregoing provision, the licensee must offer to the public, in conjunction with the sale of alcoholic beverages, the opportunity to purchase and consume food to be served on the premises in the same area designated for the sale and consumption of alcoholic beverages. These foods must be offered for sale during all times that alcoholic beverages are sold and consumed on the licensed premises.

- (d) All Class B licensees shall:
 - (1) Publish and conspicuously post a menu from which all patrons of the licensed establishment can see and order food.
 - (2) Ensure that food offered on the menu is prepared and stored on the licensed premises.
- (e) Licensees shall be presumed to meet the requirements of this provision by offering food at a sandwich level, as opposed to offering solely snack foods including but not limited to potato chips, pretzels, pickled eggs, pizza strips, stuffies and crackers and cheese.

RULE 6 CLASS B-M (BREW PUB/MFG.) LICENSE – RETAIL

- (a) Applicants for brewpub manufacturer's licenses shall be issued only to citizens who are residents of this State who are of good character and qualified, capable and willing to uphold the laws and regulations governing the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages.
- (b) The holder of a brewpub manufacturer's license shall conform to the same laws and regulations pertaining to a Class BV alcoholic beverage license, including but not limited to, the following:
 - (1) The license shall not be issued to any premise within two hundred feet (200') of any public, private, or parochial school or a place of public worship or where the owners of the greater part of the land within two hundred feet (200') of said premise file with the city or town or the Department their objection to the granting of such license.
 - (2) The license shall not be issued to any applicant who retains or owns an interest directly or indirectly in the business of brewing outside the state of Rhode Island.
 - (a) For purposes of this regulation an “applicant” shall include any partner, corporate official, stockholder, agent, or sole proprietor.

- (3) The holder of a brewpub manufacturer's license may not import alcoholic beverages into this state.
- (4) The holder of a brewpub manufacturer's license shall sell alcoholic beverages only at the premise or through a licensed wholesaler.
- (5) The holder of a brewpub manufacturer's licensed premise shall conform to all local ordinances and state laws and regulations such as fire, police, zoning and health.
- (6) The holder of a brewpub manufacturer's license shall conform to all brewery manufacturing laws in this state.
- (7) All malt beverages sold by a brewpub manufacturer's license holder shall be sold and delivered in such manner and under such conditions and with such labels and other marks as to identify the producer as the Department may prescribe.
- (8) Every brewpub manufacturer's license holder shall keep such records as the Department and/or the Division of Taxation shall prescribe.
- (9) The Department may grant, but shall not issue, a brewpub manufacturer's license until the applicant has been granted a retail manufacturer's brewpub license.

(c)

- (1) The Department shall conduct a public hearing for each completed application. The applicant shall provide a stenographer and shall bear the cost to have a transcript made of the proceedings. A free copy of the transcript shall be provided to the Department.
- (2) The Department shall give notice of public hearing by advertisement published once a week for at least two (2) weeks in a newspaper having general circulation in the city or town in which the license is located. Said advertisement shall be paid for by the applicant. The applicant shall also bear costs associated with giving proper notice to all parties of interest.
- (3) Every applicant for a brewpub manufacturer's license or for a transfer of such license shall, within fourteen (14) days after filing an application with the Department, send written notice of the application by certified mail, return receipt requested, to owners of the land within two hundred feet (200') of the proposed licensed premise. Such notice form shall be available at the Department.

- (4) Every applicant shall, at the time of application, submit a floor plan and menu of the proposed business.

RULE 26 OPEN BAR- RETAIL

An “open bar” shall not be permitted in any licensed establishment except under the following circumstances.

- (a) The event is a private party (by invitation only, not sponsored by and for the benefit of the licensee) for which tickets or other admissions are not sold at the door, and
- (b) The event has not been advertised to the general public in any manner.

An “open bar” shall not be permitted for an event sponsored in any fashion by the licensee (i.e., open house, New Year’s eve party, etc.). An “open bar” may be included in a package furnished by the licensee in accompaniment with the leasing of the premises such as a wedding, graduation party, religious event, political fundraiser, or other event approved by the Department.

The licensee shall retain and preserve as part of his or her records the itemized bills (invoice) for the private party which invoice shall contain, at a minimum, the name and address of the person representing and contracting for the party, the date of the party, the date of payment, the services rendered and the total cost of those services. These records shall be kept on the licensed premises for a period of not less than one (1) year from the date of the event.

Cross Reference:

Certain Practices Prohibited §3-7-26

RULE 27 PREMISES – RETAIL

All licenses granted or issued must identify a premise for operation under the license. The licensed premises is that portion of the licensee's property owned, leased or controlled by the licensee, on which or from which alcoholic beverage may be sold, served or stored. It shall be defined by the licensee at the time the application (new or renewal) is filed and finally determined by the approval of the local licensing board.

In addition every applicant is required to submit to the local licensing board and keep current an accurate drawing of the licensed premises outlining and giving dimensions of the area which is actually the subject of the license. Any sale, service or storage of alcoholic beverages outside the licensed premises is a violation.

Once the licensed premise is established, any expansion thereafter shall require a hearing as prescribed in §3-5-17 and the approval of the local licensing board. A decrease in the area of the licensed premises requires notification to the local licensing board and filing of a revised drawing. Any notice of a decrease in the area shall not require a public hearing.

RULE 28 PRICE – RETAIL

Price (cost) of the retail licensee's alcoholic beverage is determined by the actual total price shown on the invoice from the wholesaler, including all taxes and fees. The cost of a bottle or drink is then determined by dividing the total price by the number of bottles or single drinks included in the total figure. If the "price" figure works out to a fractional cent, the lowest amount at which the bottle or drink may be sold by the retailer is the next highest cent.

The serving of a complimentary drink (one drink) with a meal is an exception to this rule.
