~~A. Employees of the Division shall obey the Rules and Regulations of the Office of the State Fire Marshal and any amendment or additions thereto. A violation of these rules and regulations or of any Division policy may be sufficient cause for disciplinary actions.~~

~~3. OBEDIENCE TO SUPERVISORS~~

~~A. Employees of the Division shall obey all orders given to them by their appropriate supervisor. If an order is not understood, it is the responsibility of the employee to obtain clarification from their supervisor. Employees who are given orders that appear to be in conflict with previously issued orders, rules, or regulations shall respectfully inform their supervisor who issued the conflicting order. Their supervisor will then assume the responsibility for the conflict. If their supervisor does not alter or retract the second or conflicting order, the employee shall promptly obey the order barring any unsafe conditions.~~

~~4. REPORTING VIOLATIONS~~

~~A. Employees of the Division who observe or have actual knowledge of violations of laws, ordinances, rules, regulations, or official orders on the part of another employee shall immediately report such incidents to their supervisor.~~

~~5. COURTESY~~

~~A. A professional knows every aspect of his/her job and can provide complete, understandable answers to the public's questions. A~~

~~professional presents a business-like image, works efficiently, and does not abuse the position of power that special knowledge affords. A professional never criticizes a co-worker in public nor denigrates anyone. A professional raises conflict resolution to an art form, always seeking to preserve the dignity of the individuals involved in the dispute, thereby preserving the dignity of the Division of the State Fire Marshal. The word "respect" is always in the mind of the professional.~~

~~6. CONDUCT~~

- ~~A. It is the duty of every employee to conduct himself/herself inside and outside his/her office in a manner that brings honor and respect for, rather than public distrust of, division personnel. Whenever a state employee conducts himself/herself as to cause scandal or to lose or jeopardize such esteem, he/she may be dismissed for the good of the service, subject to the provisions of the law and rules.~~

~~7. CONDUCT UNBECOMING~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division shall conduct themselves at all times, both on and off duty, in such a manner that reflects favorably on the Office of the Rhode Island State Fire Marshal. Conduct unbecoming in an employee shall include any conduct that brings or may bring the Division into disrepute or reflects discredit upon the employee, or impairs the operation or efficiency of the Office of the Rhode Island State Fire Marshal or the employee.~~

~~8. HARASSMENT AND DISCRIMINATION~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division shall not discriminate against or harass other individuals because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, or any sensory, mental, or physical handicap.~~
- ~~B. In the event that an employee feels that he/she has been the victim of a sexually harassing act, or other harassing or discriminatory act, or violence in the workplace, he/she shall immediately make a complaint either through his/her supervisor or directly to the Fire Marshal concerning the incident. In such cases the chain of command need not be followed to initiate such a complaint.~~

~~9. ON DUTY RELIGIOUS, RACIAL AND POLITICAL DISPUTE~~

- ~~A. While on duty, employees of the Division shall not become publicly embroiled in any religious, racial, partisan political or other controversial dispute in which their stand on the issue could be interpreted as the official position of the Division of the State Fire Marshal.~~

~~10. USE OF ALCOHOL ON DUTY~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division shall not consume intoxicating beverages while on duty, nor shall he/she appear for work or be on duty while under the influence of intoxicants to any degree.~~

~~11. ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES IN DIVISION FACILITIES~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division shall not possess, use, or store alcoholic beverages in any department facility or vehicle at any time, except for alcohol collected as evidence as part of an investigation.~~

~~12. USE OF DRUGS~~

- ~~A. No Division employee shall use or possess any narcotic, dangerous drug, or controlled substance, whether on or off duty, except for medical purposes as prescribed by a physician, dentist or other medical authority, or for drugs collected as evidence as part of an investigation.~~

~~13. SUSPECTED INTOXICATION~~

- ~~A. If a supervisor has reasonable grounds to believe a sworn employee is under the influence of an intoxicating beverage and/or drugs while on duty, the employee shall be immediately required to submit to tests to determine intoxication. If a blood sample is required, competent personnel will take the employee to a medical facility for extraction of the sample. The time lapse between the initial report of the employee's condition and the intoxication tests shall be accurately recorded.~~

~~14. ABUSE OF ALCOHOL OFF DUTY~~

~~A. Sworn employees, while off-duty, shall refrain from consuming alcohol to the extent that it could constitute unbecoming conduct as described in~~

~~these rules, or render them unfit to report for duty if they are called back in an emergency. Employees shall not consume any alcoholic beverage during the four hours prior to the start of their regular work hours.~~

~~15. GRATUITIES, GIFTS, REWARDS~~

~~A. Employees of the Division shall not solicit or accept any gratuity or any other item of value where there is any connection, however remote, between such offer of solicitation and the civilian's position with the department. Employees shall neither directly or indirectly:~~

- ~~1.) Solicit or accept any gratuities of merchandise, meals, beverages, or any other item of value that is intended to influence their or any other employee's actions in any matter of department business, or which might cast an adverse reflection on the department or any of its employees.~~
- ~~2.) Solicit any discounted services or merchandise offered as a result of their employment with the department.~~
- ~~3.) Solicit or accept any gift or gratuity from other department personnel if such items would adversely affect their duties.~~
- ~~4.) Solicit or accept any reward for services rendered in the performance of their duty.~~
- ~~5.) Solicit free admission to places of amusement for themselves or others.~~
- ~~6.) Private financial obligations shall be handled so not to affect work performance.~~

~~16. INSUBORDINATION~~

~~A. Insubordination or disrespect toward superior authority is strictly prohibited. Insubordination is defined as: a failure to recognize the authority of any supervisor by disrespecting, disputing, disobeying, or refusing to obey the supervisor's lawful authority.~~

~~B. Sworn employees of the Division shall not publicly criticize the Division of the State Fire Marshal, its policies, or other employees in speech.~~

~~writing, or other forms of expression. This provision is not intended to preclude the exercise of employees' rights under state and/or federal law.~~

~~17. ABUSE OF POSITION~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division shall not lend to another person their identification card or permit them to be photographed or reproduced without the approval of the Fire Marshal.~~
- ~~B. Employees of the Division shall not authorize their names, photographs or official titles that identify them as employees of the Division of the State Fire Marshal for use in connection with advertisements of any commodity or commercial enterprise.~~
- ~~C. Employees of the Division shall not identify themselves as employees of the Division of the State Fire Marshal for the purpose of gaining personal advantages or avoiding the consequences of illegal acts performed by themselves or by other individuals.~~

~~18. ENDORSEMENTS AND REFERRALS~~

- ~~A. No Division employee shall recommend or suggest in any manner, except in the transaction of personal business, the employment or procurement of a particular product, professional service or commercial service.~~

~~19. CONFLICT OF INTEREST STATEMENT~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division shall have no interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, nor shall they engage in any business, transaction, or professional activity, or incur any obligation of any nature that is in conflict with the proper discharge of their duties.~~
- ~~B. Employees of the Division shall have no interest or association, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, with any illegal activity, or with any individual and/or business in any way associated with any illegal activity. Such association may be permitted when necessary for the performance of official duties and where unavoidable because of family relationships with a department member.~~

~~20. TARDINESS~~

~~A. Employees of the Division are required to report for duty on time. Failure to report on time may result in penalties and/or disciplinary action subject to the terms and conditions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement, where applicable.~~

~~21. ATTENDANCE RECORDS~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division shall not knowingly make omissions or false representation on time cards, sick leave reports, injury reports, or personnel records.~~

~~22. RELATIONS WITH DIVISION PERSONNEL~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division shall never behave disrespectfully or use threatening or insulting language toward any other employee. Employees shall not offer violence against, nor strike or attempt to strike any other employee.~~
- ~~B. In their dealings with department personnel of the opposite sex, all employees shall act in a professional, respectful manner.~~

~~23. REPORTS~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division shall complete and submit all reports in accordance with established department procedures. No employee shall knowingly enter, or cause to be entered, any inaccurate, false, or misleading information on a report.~~

~~24. TRUTHFULNESS~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division shall at all times be truthful and honest in dealing with fellow department personnel or members of the public. Upon the order of any superior, employees shall truthfully answer all questions lawfully asked of them that are specifically directed to the scope of employment and operations of the department.~~

~~25. FALSIFICATION OF EMPLOYMENT APPLICATION~~

- ~~A. No employee of the Division shall procure employment by willfully misrepresenting their qualifications, character, or reputation.~~

~~26. DERELICTION OF DUTIES~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division, while on duty, shall at all times remain alert and ready to respond to any situation requiring the Fire Marshal. While on duty, employees shall not sleep, conduct personal business, attend to personal pleasures, or take part in any other activities that would cause them to neglect or be inattentive to duty. It is the obligation of all employees to devote their on-duty time to official matters only. Therefore, employees shall not engage in private business while on duty.~~

~~27. UNSATISFACTORY PERFORMANCE~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division shall maintain sufficient competency to properly perform their duties and assume the responsibilities of their positions. Employees shall perform their duties in a manner that will maintain the highest standards of efficiency in carrying out the functions and objectives of the department. Unsatisfactory performance may be demonstrated by an unwillingness or inability to perform assigned tasks, and the failure to conform to work standards established for the employee's position. In addition to other indicators of unsatisfactory performance, the following shall be considered evidence of unsatisfactory performance: repeated poor evaluations or a record of repeated infractions of rules, regulations, directives, or orders of the department.~~

~~28. NOTIFICATION OF INABILITY TO REPORT TO WORK~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division who know they will be unable to report to work due to illness, injury, or for any other reason, shall immediately notify their supervisor (or ensure such notification) and supply the expected date of return to work. The supervisor shall also be advised of a change in the expected date of return that may occur after the original notification is given. Upon return to duty from sick leave, employees may be required to supply a doctor's certificate stating physical ability to return to work.~~
- ~~B. Employees of the Division injured while on duty shall report such injuries to their supervisor as soon as possible, and shall comply with the provisions of existing regulations pertaining to such injuries. Employees who become ill and find it necessary to leave an assigned task or duty shall report this fact to their supervisor before leaving the assignment or task.~~

~~29. FICTITIOUS ILLNESS OR INJURY REPORT~~

- ~~A. Employees shall not feign illness or injury, falsely report themselves ill or injured, or otherwise deceive, or attempt to deceive any employee of the Division as to the condition of their health.~~

~~30. PROCESSING PROPERTY AND EVIDENCE~~

- ~~A. Property or evidence that have been discovered, gathered, or received in connection with Division responsibilities shall be processed and disposed of in accordance with established Division procedures. Employees shall not manufacture, conceal, falsify, destroy, remove, tamper with, or convert to their own use, any property or evidence, except in accordance with established Division procedures.~~

~~31. INTERFERENCE WITH LEGAL PROCESSES: UNAUTHORIZED INVESTIGATIONS~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division shall not interfere with cases assigned to other employees for investigation, nor shall they interfere with any arrest or prosecution brought by other employees, persons, or agencies without authorization of a supervisor.~~
- ~~B. Employees of the Division shall not undertake any investigation or other official action outside their regular duties without obtaining permission from their supervisor, except in exigent circumstances.~~

~~32. RECOMMENDATIONS REGARDING DISPOSITION OF CASE~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division shall not make any recommendation to any court or other judicial agency regarding the disposition of a pending criminal court case. Employees shall refrain from making any recommendation or comment that might tend to reflect the Division's official approval or disapproval of another such agency's actions.~~

~~33. COURT APPEARANCES~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division are required to attend scheduled court appearances to testify or appear before any court of law, public agency~~

~~or commission, legislative body, or any other similar forum when notified.~~

~~34. TESTIFYING IN CIVIL CASES~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division shall not testify in any civil case in which the Rhode Island State Fire marshal may have an interest without specific prior approval from the Fire Marshal, unless they are a party to the action or have been legally summoned to testify.~~

~~35. CRIMINAL CASE TESTIMONY~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division appearing for the prosecution shall not publicly discuss the testimony that they will give in any criminal court action, nor shall they sign any statements concerning any criminal for a person not officially connected with the Division, except at the direction of official agencies such as the prosecuting official having jurisdiction of the case. Employees subpoenaed by the defense in a criminal case shall contact the prosecuting attorney handling the case prior to the trial.~~

~~36. DISSEMINATION OF INFORMATION~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division shall treat the official business of the Fire Marshal that is not considered a public record as confidential. Information regarding official business shall be disseminated only to those for who it is intended, in accordance with established procedures. Employees will assist any member of the public who requests public information, and will abide by the applicable sections of the "Access to Public Records Act," R.I.G.L. 32-2-1, et seq., regarding such requests. Employees shall not divulge the identity of persons giving confidential information except as authorized by the Fire Marshal.~~

~~37. PUBLIC PRONOUNCEMENTS~~

- ~~A. Any employee of the Division must have authorization from the Fire Marshal before engaging in public speaking on behalf of the Division, as the Fire Marshal has the ultimate responsibility for formulating and interpreting Division policies and procedures.~~
- ~~B. Employees of the Division engaged in public speaking events shall be responsible for accurately relating Division policy as outlined in these Rules and Regulations and other Division procedures.~~

~~C. The article shall not be interpreted to deprive employees of any first amendment rights as citizens to comment on matters of public interest.~~

~~38. ATTENDANCE AT PUBLIC FUNCTIONS~~

~~A. Employees are prohibited from attending any of the following functions while on duty without prior approval of their supervisor, unless their attendance has been requested as part of their official duties:~~

- ~~1.) Court trials and hearings~~
- ~~2.) Public hearings, city/town meetings, legislative sessions, political events, etc.~~
- ~~3.) Union meetings~~
- ~~4.) Public demonstrations~~

~~39. SEEKING PUBLICITY~~

~~A. Employees of the Division shall not directly or indirectly use their official position within the department to seek publicity for themselves through the press, radio, television, or other news media; nor shall they furnish information to same for the purpose of gaining personal recognition.~~

~~40. IDENTIFICATION~~

~~A. Employees of the Division shall carry their identification cards on their persons at all times. They shall furnish their identification cards to any person requesting that information when they are on duty or while portraying themselves in an official capacity.~~

~~41. CARE AND MAINTENANCE OF DIVISION PROPERTY, EQUIPMENT AND VEHICLES~~

~~A. Employees of the Division shall maintain, in good condition, all property and equipment assigned to them or under their control. They shall immediately report to their supervisor any loss or damage of Division property, equipment or vehicles assigned to them or under their control. They shall also notify their supervisor of any defects or hazardous conditions existing in any property or equipment assigned to them. In those cases where state property is found bearing evidence of damage that~~

~~has not been reported, the last person using the property, equipment, or vehicle will be held responsible for said damage.~~

~~42. OPERATION OF OFFICIAL VEHICLES~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division shall operate official vehicles in a careful and prudent manner and shall obey all state laws and the Rules and Regulations of the Office of the State Fire Marshal pertaining to such operation. Loss or suspension of any driving license shall be reported immediately.~~

~~43. ACCIDENTS INVOLVING VEHICLES~~

- ~~A. Whenever an employee of the Division is involved in an accident while operating a department vehicle, he/she shall immediately notify his/her superior officer.~~
- ~~B. A supervisor shall investigate said accident and complete all related reports.~~
- ~~C. The supervisor of the employee involved has the responsibility of notifying the Fire Marshal without unreasonable delay. In the case of a collision involving serious injury, the supervisor shall immediately notify the Fire Marshal.~~

~~44. INJURIES INFLICTED TO PERSONS OR PROPERTY~~

- ~~A. Whenever an employee of the Division is involved in an accident while operating a department vehicle, or in any way injures a person or property, the employee shall immediately notify his/her supervisor, and the supervisor shall subsequently notify the Fire Marshal without unreasonable delay.~~

~~45. RESPONSIBILITY FOR DIVISION VEHICLE~~

- ~~A. An employee of the Division who is assigned as an operator of a department vehicle shall be responsible for the instant serviceability of the vehicle assigned to his/her use.~~

~~46. EXPENDITURE OF STATE FUNDS~~

~~A. No purchases shall be made or liability incurred in the name of the Office of the Fire Marshal by an employee unless in accordance with the state purchasing policy, regulations, or laws.~~

~~47. KNOWLEDGE OF DIVISION DIRECTIVES~~

- ~~A. All employees are responsible for knowing and understanding all Division regulations, policies, and directives. It is the responsibility of the employee to seek clarification of any order or material that is not clearly understood.~~

~~48. CIVIL SUITS FOR DAMAGES OR INJURIES~~

- ~~A. No employee will prosecute or enforce any claim against any person for injuries or damages incurred while on duty until he/she has notified the Fire Marshal of his/her intention. In the event of such recovery for damages claimed, the employee will reimburse the state for wages and medical expenses paid by the state while he/she was in an "off-duty-injured" status, in accordance with state law.~~

~~49. VIOLATIONS~~

- ~~A. Violations of these Rules and Regulations or of any policy, procedure, directive, order, or command given lawfully by superior authority may be grounds for disciplinary action. The Fire Marshal will determine appropriate disciplinary action, and in accordance with the appropriate Collective Bargaining Agreement, where applicable.~~

~~50. GENERAL KNOWLEDGE AND PERFORMANCE~~

- ~~A. Every employee will familiarize himself/herself with all the laws, statutes, ordinances, and regulations necessary for the proficient execution of his/her duty as an employee of the Division of the State Fire Marshal.~~

~~51. KNOWLEDGE OF THE STATE~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division will familiarize himself/herself with the geography of the state, including the location of streets, highways, bridges, public buildings, courts, stations, prominent or important office~~

~~buildings, large industrial plants or commercial establishments, and such other information as may be disseminated by superiors from time to time.~~

~~52. SECURITY OF FIREARMS~~

- ~~A. A Sworn member of the Division is responsible for the safekeeping and security of his/her firearm at all times. A sworn member will not leave his/her firearm unattended and unsecured. When a firearm is left in a locker, the sworn member will ensure that the locker is properly secured.~~

~~53. MARKING OR ALTERING DIVISION NOTICES~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division shall not mark, alter, mar, or deface any notice posted on any bulletin board or blackboard maintained by the Office of the State Fire Marshal. All notices of a personal nature and/or of derogatory character regarding any member are prohibited.~~

~~54. STATEMENT CONCERNING LIABILITY~~

- ~~A. Employees of the Division will not make any oral or written statements to anyone concerning liability in connection with the operation of Division vehicles or performance of other duties, unless specifically authorized to do so by the Fire Marshal.~~

~~55. RELEASE OF PERSONAL TELEPHONE NUMBERS, E-MAIL ADDRESSES, AND STREET ADDRESSES~~

- ~~A. No employee of the Division will release to the public or any public agency the home or personal telephone number(s), e-mail address(es), and street address(es) of any employee(s) of the Division without authorization.~~
