

~~Education: Non-Adjudicated Youth~~

~~Rhode Island Department of Children, Youth, and Families
Division of Juvenile Correctional Services: Training School and Detention Center~~

~~Policy: 1200.1718~~

~~Effective Date: June 14, 2004 Version: 1~~

~~The Education Program provides educational services for all residents, including those who are non-adjudicated. Educational planning is based on educational screening, assessment, evaluation, and the tentative nature of the detainee's length of stay at the facility.~~

~~Related Procedures...~~

~~Education: Non-Adjudicated Youth~~

Education: Non-Adjudicated Youth

Procedure from Policy 1200.1718: Education: Non-Adjudicated Youth

- ~~A. Non-adjudicated students will be assigned to either one of two learning groups for up to thirty (30) days of their detention. During that time a Special Education Teacher will cover basic subjects that concentrate on literacy and current events. There will also be an emphasis on health and safety.~~
- ~~B. After thirty (30) days of detention, the student will be assigned to a third learning group that provides a competency-based curriculum. If the student is adjudicated before the fifteenth day of his or her stay, Program staff requests the student's educational records.~~
- ~~C. On the fifteenth day of detention the Education Administration initiates procedures to obtain the student's record from the school system where the student last attended.~~
- ~~D. During the entire length of the student's stay at the RITS, regardless of his or her adjudication status, the Education Program staff will encourage parent or legal guardian participation.~~