

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE GRADING OF HONEY

(Authority-General Laws-1956-As Amended)

Rules and Regulations of the Rhode Island State Department of Agriculture and Conservation.

I. STANDARD RETAIL GRADES

- A. Rhode Island Fancy Grade Honey shall be honey that is produced in Rhode Island and is free from overheating, fermentation, honey-dew pollen, objectionable flavor from floral source or paint or smoke, carbolic acid or other foreign flavor, odor or dirt.

Such honey shall not weigh less than twelve (12) pounds per gallon at 60 degrees Fahrenheit or the density of which shall not be less than 41.5 degrees Baume or 76.4 degrees Brix at 60 degrees Fahrenheit.

The color of such honey may be any standard color as measured by the official U.S. color grader varying from water-white to dark. The honey shall be clean as though strained through an 86-mesh bolting cloth at not over 140 degrees Fahrenheit and shall be sold or offered for sale in strong, clean containers that are new in appearance.

B. TOLERANCE

In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling, not more than 5% by count of any lot of honey may be below the requirements for the grade but no part of this tolerance shall be allowed for defects causing serious damage.

II. VIOLATIONS: - - NOTICE AND HEARING

- A. When the Commissioner of Agriculture becomes cognizant of any violations of these regulations he shall cause notice of such violation, together with a copy of the findings, to be given to the person or persons concerned. Persons so notified shall be given a hearing under rules and regulations prescribed by the Commissioner. Notices of such hearing shall specify the date, hour and place of hearing.

VIOLATIONS: - - PENALTIES

- A. Any person, firm or corporation who shall misbrand or mislabel any package or other container of honey or who shall violate any rule or regulations passed by said board providing for branding and labeling shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or more than one hundred dollars ($100) or be imprisoned for a term of three months or by both such fine and imprisonment.

III. These rules and regulations may be amended from time to time.

March 1958