Permission to participate shall be limited to the right to file a brief. Permission to participate, unless otherwise stated, shall not be deemed to constitute an expression that the person allowed to participate is a party in interest who may be aggrieved by any final decision. A person who petitioned to intervene and who was allowed to participate, may participate without waiving its rights to judicial review of the denial of said petition to intervene.

- B. Hearing hours. Whenever possible hearings shall be held during regular business hours. The AHO may, in his/her discretion, schedule an evening hearing if he/she deems it necessary to provide adequate opportunity for public comment, public questioning of witnesses or to expedite the case.

3. Parties interested in exploring settlement options may request a control date within 30 to 60 days from the date of the request. Approval of a control date shall be issued by order of the AHO. The control date serves as a stay of further proceedings before the AAD. Unless the parties file a consent agreement, withdraw the request for hearing before the expiration of the control date, request an extension of the control date, or advise the AHO in writing of the status of the matter, the AAD will automatically place the matter back on prehearing and hearing schedule. Upon expiration of the control date, if the parties have not entered into a consent agreement or withdrawn the appeal, the matter shall proceed to a prehearing conference.

1.15 Prehearing Conference

- A. The AHO shall require the parties to appear for a prehearing conference at least seven (7) days prior to the scheduled commencement of the hearing to consider:
 1. The simplification or clarification of the issues;

2. The possibility of obtaining stipulations, admissions, agreements on documents, understanding on matters already of record, or similar agreement which will avoid unnecessary proof;
 3. The limitation of the number of expert witnesses, or avoidance of similar cumulative evidence, if the case is to be heard;
 4. The possibility of agreement disposing of all or any of the issues in dispute; and,
 5. Such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the adjudicatory proceeding.
- B. The parties may meet prior to the initial prehearing conference to exchange and consider all documentary exhibits. As to those admissible without objection, counsel shall affix sequential numbers and shall prepare a descriptive list in numerical order of all such exhibits. The parties may also consider the qualification of expert witnesses and as to those who may be qualified without objection, counsel shall prepare a list of such qualified persons and the precise area of agreed qualification.

In matters in which a violation is alleged the burden of proof shall be on the Division. In matters in which a permit or application denial is at issue the burden shall rest with the applicant.
 - E. All preliminary motions (including but not limited to Motions for Summary Judgment, Motions to Dismiss, Motions to Suppress or Exclude Evidence, Motions for Protective Orders and Motions in Limine) must be in writing and received by the AHO by the date of the prehearing conference.

- B. Hearings, when and where held. Hearings will be held at the location designated by the AHO. Any party may, by motion, request that a hearing be held at some place other than that designated, due to disability or infirmity of any party or witness, or where justice and equity would be best served. Upon motion of any party and upon good cause shown, the AHO may in his/her discretion schedule a case for hearing.
- C. Notice of hearings. The notice of hearing must include the date, time and place of the hearing and prehearing conference and a statement of the petitioner's right to have counsel present. The notice shall provide sufficient notice of the issues involved so that the parties may have a reasonable opportunity to prepare and present evidence and argument. The notice of hearing must set forth the requirements for intervention as outlined in § 1.12 of this Part.

The notice of hearing shall set forth the burden of proof. In an enforcement hearing, the burden of proof shall be set forth in accordance with § 1.12(C) of this Part of the Rules and Regulations for the Assessment of Administrative Penalties. In a hearing regarding the denial of a permit or variance application by the Department, the burden of proof shall be on the applicant.

If the issues cannot be fully stated in advance of the hearing, they shall be fully stated as soon as practicable. In all cases of delayed statement, or where subsequent amendment of the issues is necessary, sufficient time shall be allowed at the discretion of the AHO after full statement or amendment to afford all parties reasonable opportunity to prepare and present evidence and argument respecting the issues.

D. Conduct of Hearing

1. General. Hearings shall be as formal as may be reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances.
2. Decorum. All parties, authorized representatives, witnesses and other persons present at a hearing shall conduct themselves in a manner consistent with the standards of decorum commonly observed in any court. Where such decorum is not observed, the AHO may take appropriate action including adjournment, if necessary.
3. Duties of hearing officer. The AHO shall conduct the hearing, make all decisions regarding admission or exclusion of evidence or any other procedural matters, and administer an oath or affirmation to all witnesses.

1. Oath. A witness' testimony shall be under oath or affirmation.
2. Rules of evidence. Pursuant to R.I. Gen. Laws § 42-35-10, the Rules of Evidence shall apply to evidence introduced during public participation to the same extent the rules apply to evidence admitted by other parties. Gen Laws § 42-35-10 may be accepted as public comment, shall not be accepted as evidence, and if made part of the administration record shall be marked as public comment. Rule 408 of the Rhode Island Rules of Evidence shall govern all communications including communications occurring prior to a Notice of Intent to Enforce or a Notice of Violation being issued.
3. Offer of proof. An offer of proof may be made in connection with an objection in response to a ruling of the AHO rejecting or excluding proffered testimony. The offer of proof shall consist of a statement and substance of the evidence which the party contends would be adduced by such testimony, and if the excluded evidence consists of evidence in documentary or written form, or of reference to documents or records, a copy of such evidence shall be marked for identification and shall constitute the offer of proof.
4. Written testimony. The AHO may order the parties to file, prior to the commencement of any hearing, the testimony of any or all of their respective witnesses and to submit such testimony to the AHO and the opposing party or the opposing counsel by such date as the AHO shall determine. The witness shall testify under oath, and all of such testimony shall be in a question and answer format. Save for good cause shown, said testimony shall be the direct examination of said witness, provided, however, that said witness shall be available at the hearing for cross-examination by the opposing party or opposing counsel.

H. Documentary evidence included. Documentary evidence may be received in evidence in the form of copies or excerpts.

I. Administrative notice. Per R.I. Gen Laws § 42-35-10(4), the AHO may take notice of any judicially cognizable facts which may be judicially noticed by the courts of this State, or of generally recognized technical or scientific facts within the Agency's specialized knowledge, only if the parties are notified of the material so noticed and are given an opportunity to contest the facts so noticed. Notice may also be taken of properly adopted rules and regulations adopted by the agencies of this State or Federal agencies.

 3. Costs. Witnesses subpoenaed under these Rules shall be entitled to the same fees for attendance and travel as are provided for witnesses in civil cases in the Superior Court.

Transcript corrections, agreed to by opposing parties, may be incorporated into the record, if and when approved by the AHO, at any time during the hearing, or after the close of evidence. The AHO may call for the submission of proposed corrections and may make disposition thereof at appropriate times during the course of the proceeding.
- M. Contents of records. The record shall, at all reasonable times, be available for inspection by the parties.
- N. Evidence after completion. No evidence shall be admitted after completion of a hearing or after a case submitted on the record, unless otherwise ordered by the AHO.

The AHO may in any case require either party, with appropriate notice to the other party, to submit additional evidence on any matter relevant to the administrative hearing.
- P. Exceptions. Formal exceptions to rulings on evidence and procedure are unnecessary. It is sufficient that a Party, at the time that a ruling is made or sought, makes known his or her objection to such action and his or her grounds therefore.

1.17 Decisions

- A. Decisions. All decisions rendered by an AHO at the conclusion of a hearing shall be in writing and shall comply with the requirements of R.I. Gen. Laws § 42-17.7-6 and § 42-35-12. Parties shall be notified either in person, or by mail, or electronic transmittal of any order. Included in the final order shall be a separate notice advising the parties of the availability of judicial review, the appeal period

1.18 Consent Order or Withdrawal

- A. Negotiations. At any time prior to rendering a final decision, parties to a hearing may attempt to dispose of a matter by entering into a consent order. A joint request for a stay of a hearing for this purpose shall be forwarded to the AHO and shall indicate the present status of negotiations. If an agreement is not reached within the time period for which the stay was approved, a hearing shall be promptly rescheduled by the AHO.

Every agreement shall contain, in addition to an appropriate order, an admission of all jurisdictional facts and express waivers of further procedural steps before the AHO and of the right to appeal and shall also state that such agreement is enforceable as an order of the Director in accordance with procedures prescribed by law. In addition, the agreement may contain a statement that the signing thereof is for settlement purposes only and does not constitute an admission by any party that the law or regulations have been violated as alleged in the Notice of Violations.
- C. Disposition of proposed agreement. Upon receiving such agreement, the AHO may:

1. Accept it and issue the order agreed upon; except that no agreement shall be accepted unless consistent with the provisions of R.I. Gen. Laws § 42-17.1-2(s)(1),

1.20 Filing for Recovery of Litigation Expenses

- A. Purpose. The purpose of this rule is to carry out the statutory requirements contained in the Equal Access to Justice Act, Chapter 42-92 of the R.I. Gen.

Laws which provides for the award of reasonable litigation expenses to prevailing parties in certain adjudicatory proceedings conducted by state agencies.

- B. Filing procedure. Within thirty (30) days of the conclusion of an adjudicatory proceeding of the Department relating to an enforcement action or order, or to the revocation or suspension of a license or permit, or to any other adjudicatory proceeding as defined in R.I. Gen. Laws § 42-92-2, a respondent may submit a claim to the AHO in the proceeding for litigation expenses pursuant to Chapter 42-92 of the R.I. Gen. Laws. For purposes of this section, the adjudicatory proceedings are deemed to be concluded on the date a final decision is issued pursuant to § 1.17 of this Part or on the date that a Consent Order is accepted by the AHO pursuant to § 1.18 of this Part. The claim for litigation expenses shall conform to the general filing requirements of § 1.6 of this Part and shall contain a summary of the legal and factual basis for filing the claim.
- C. Supporting affidavits and documentary evidence. The petitioner may submit with his or her claim for litigation expenses, affidavits and documentary evidence presenting the legal and factual basis by which the petitioner claims he or she is entitled to an award of litigation expenses, including facts establishing:
 - 1. That the petitioner is a party as defined in R.I. Gen. Laws § 42-92-2(a).
 - 2. That the petitioner has prevailed against the Department in the underlying adjudicatory proceeding.
 - 3. That the Department was not charged by statute with investigating a complaint which led to the underlying adjudicatory proceeding.
 - 4. The amount of reasonable litigation expenses as defined in R.I. Gen. Laws § 42-92-2(c).
 - 5. That the Department instituted the underlying adjudicatory proceeding without substantial justification.
- D. Department's answer. The Division shall provide a written answer to the claim for litigation expenses to the AHO within twenty (20) days of receipt of the claim. Such answer may include affidavits and documentary evidence supporting its position and other evidence in support of the position that the Department was substantially justified in its actions.

E. Evidentiary hearing. Within ten (10) days of the filing of the Division's answer with the AHO, either party may move for an evidentiary hearing on the issue of the awarding of litigation expenses. The motion shall be granted only if the moving party satisfies the AHO that affidavits are an inadequate method of presenting new evidence relevant to the awarding of litigation expenses.

F. Decision

1. Except as provided in § 1.20(F)(2) of this Part, the AHO shall award reasonable litigation expenses to the petitioner if he or she finds that the record in the case establishes by a preponderance of the evidence:
 - a. That the petitioner is a party as defined in the R.I. Gen. Laws § 42-92-2(a);
 - b. That the respondent has prevailed against the Division in the underlying adjudicatory proceeding;
 - c. That the Department instituted the underlying adjudicatory proceeding without substantial justification; and,
 - d. The amount of reasonable litigation expenses as defined in R.I. Gen. Laws § 42-92-2(c) which may include a recalculation of the expenses and a finding that some or all of the litigation expenses qualify as reasonable litigation expenses under the statute.
2. The AHO shall deny an award of litigation expenses to the petitioner if:
 - a. The petitioner failed to meet the burden of proof established in § 1.20(F)(1) of this Part;
 - b. The Division was substantially justified in the actions leading to the proceedings and in the proceeding itself; or,
 - c. The Division was charged by statute with investigating a complaint, which led to the adjudicatory proceeding.
 - d. The AHO may, at his or her discretion, deny fees or expenses if special circumstances make an award unjust.

The foregoing Rules and Regulations, after due notice, are hereby adopted and filed with the Secretary of State to become effective 20 days after filing, in accordance with the provisions of Chapters 42-17.7, and 42-35 of the R.I. Gen. Laws.
